Otter Rotters back out on the streets... but is it a last hurrah?

Peter Hodges
Reporter | peter@viewnews.co.uk

AFTER months of uncertainty and disappointment, residents across East Devon were delighted to see members of community recycling group Otter Rotters out in force running a special collection for their customers.

Otter Rotters have been unable to collect garden waste from residents this year, due to changes in county recycling policy and funding, and residents rushed from their homes to tell members of Otter Rotters how much they've missed them in 2017.

But volunteers decided that because of the warm and wet weather, that they would venture out to collect from residents.

Mandy Jennings, who runs the service has met with MPs and councillors to try and resolve the issue, but has had no luck.

It had been thought that there could be a reprieve for the recycling scheme, after Devon County Council delayed the dramatic cut to how much they pay volunteer recycling groups per tonne they collect.

The cuts to recycling credits, mean that Otter Rotters cannot afford to serve the the community.

Organiser Mandy Jennings said: "In 2011, when Devon County Council withdrew garden waste skip provision to towns in East Devon, dedicated volunteers with the essential support of local businesses were able to offer a new service.

"However, we have now been told that the scheme will no longer receive full Recycling Credits despite other sectors keeping theirs.

"It really is a hiving off of community assets and creating a two tier engagement - those that can afford it and leaving those that can't behind.

"Devon CC's consultation did not properly explain the full circumstances and the Impact Assessment did not reflect the predictable consequences with no recognition of the extra pollution from all those extra car journeys.

"People have told us all along that they will have to put their garden waste into their bins as they have no other way to cope with it and this will have cost the tax payer more money as the garden waste is taken out of area and burnt.

"It was known by local authorities that notable levels of garden waste were going into dustbins prior to this change and OR were helping to reach people - letting them know that there was an alternative.

"If the situation has been monitored as promised when the vote was taken at County Hall then there should be records of current levels of garden waste entering the waste stream."

"We hope that Devon CC will revisit the issue before it is too late - to suggest people get into their individual cars to make extra trips to recycling centres, some with a round trip of 20 miles, is a backward step.

"If people had a choice I think that they may prefer East Devon DC to spend its limited budget on the services under strain rather than to have to spend time costing a service to replace an existing community run service that is very popular."

It is thought, that EDDC, who provide kerbside collections, could soon be providing households with an extra wheelie bin for residents to put their garden waste in.

EDDC has now rolled out its brand new recycling scheme, which so far has been a success for the authority.

Mandy said that her volunteers were so warmly greeted by East Devon residents when they went out on a special round last week to collect garden waste: "When residents spotted the team they hurried out to say hello.

"I was particularly moved by a lovely lady who, despite having to use a walking aid, was clearly delighted to see her old friends and walked to them ignoring her pain.

"All the people who spoke to the team said similar things - that they had missed the service this year, and many said that they had no other way of disposing of their garden waste - not having cars or family living close by and reluctantly they had had to put it in their bin."

■ HONITON'S Carnival Royalty took part in the first event of the circuit in Seaton over the weekend. Georgia Clifford-Davies and Oriana Burford were wearing their brand new dresses on this year's float. Georgia and Oriana will be representing Honiton throughout the autumn, ending with their own carnival on Saturday, October 28th.

Councillor told to 'consider her position'

DEVON County Council Health and Adult Care (HAC) Scrutiny Committee chairman Councillor Sara Randall Johnson (Con) has been asked to "immediately consider her position" after she was accused of failing to act properly during a key meeting on local hospital bed closures.

The demand came from her fellow councillor Martin Shaw (Independent EDA) after the council's Standards Committee resolved to "strongly" remind her of the importance of the work of a scrutiny committee.

Councillor Randall Johnson was cleared of breaching the council's code of conduct, and there was no evidence of her failing to treat others with respect, failing to act in the public interest or failing to act properly.

But Councillor Shaw said that the call for a Scrutiny Committee chairman to "be strongly reminded of the importance of the work" is unprecedented.

The complaints stem from the July 25th meeting of the HAC Scrutiny Committee when it was resolved not to refer NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group's (CCG) hospital bed closure process and decision to the Secretary of State for Health, Jeremy Hunt MP.

The bed closure programme saw beds close at hospitals in, among other, Seaton and Honiton only last month, and was met with fierce dismay and opposition by campaigners.

More than 20 complaints were made against Councillor Randall Johnson and the way she chaired the meeting.

A meeting of the Standards Committee met on August 29th to consider the investigating officer's report.

The meeting was held behind closed doors and Councillor Randall Johnson is not named in the publicly available minutes, but there are a number of references to the Scrutiny chairman.

The minutes run to seven pages and, in summary, say: "The committee finds:

"That the allegations are not proven and that there has not been any breach of the Code of Conduct;

"That there is no evidence to support any allegation that the subject member failed to treat others with respect or had failed to act in the public interest or had acted improperly or did not have regard to the relevant facts before taking part in any decision making process as alleged;

"That, additionally, the subject member be strongly reminded of the importance of the work of scrutiny committees – reinforcing the value of neutrality in scrutiny both generally and in calling the 'health service' to account – and the need to be seen to be even handed and scrupulously fair, recognising that failure to do so may be perceived as a deliberate act; the difference between perception and reality being not easily countered."

The minutes also noted that: "The events of the Health and Adult Care Scrutiny Committee meeting on July 25th may not reflect well on individual members or upon the council as a whole, and further recognises that the perception gained by persons present at the meeting or subsequently viewing the webcast is not that which would have been desired. Group leaders should therefore be asked to remind members of the need to conduct themselves appropriately and respectfully at all times."

Councillor Shaw issued a press release on August 31st, saying: "Scrutiny chairman councillor Sara Randall Johnson should immediately consider her position following the stinging rebuke issued to her by the council's Standards Committee.

"The council should also act to restore the credibility of HAC Scrutiny, since its failure to fully scrutinise the removal of community hospital beds in Honiton, Okehampton and Seaton has destroyed public confidence in its activities across a large swathe of Devon.

"The call for a Scrutiny chairman to 'be strongly reminded of the importance of the work' of her committee, and of the value of neutrality and being seen to be even-handed and fair, is unprecedented and should lead Councillor Randall Johnson to immediately consider her position. There is no public confidence that she will lead the committee to carry out full and impartial scrutiny of NHS decision-making.

"The Scrutiny Committee ignored the views of local communities and their representatives and has allowed the CCG to get away with damaging cuts.

"The council must now consider how to restore people's faith that it will protect all our community hospitals in the future. I shall ensure that this is discussed when the council meets on October 5th."

Councillor Randall Johnson declined to comment.

SSDC to become more commercially-minded

SOUTH Somerset District Council is to become a more commercial organisation after a new Commercial Strategy was approved at the Full Council meeting in August.

The strategy sets out a new approach for the council to grow its income, become more business-like and to help it focus on reaching its investment, regeneration and economic development objectives and grow into the future.

Up until recently, the main source of funding for councils has been government grants.

However, since 2010 all councils have seen a significant cut in their funding from Government, sustaining the biggest funding cuts of any part of the public sector.

As well as finding significant efficiency savings, the council is committed to protecting services as far as possible and meeting its ambitions to improve life in South Somerset by being more commercial in its approach and making investments that will deliver valuable income.

To help it get there, the council is changing its policies, approach and reskilling staff. It will also be looking to employ a core team with the right skills, experience and commercial mind set, to select a wider range of investments to best meet the council objectives.

This will ensure that it is keeping pace with the commercial markets, generating more of its own income, future proofing itself against central Government cuts; and in doing so, continuing to deliver high quality services.

Leader of the council, Councillor Ric Pallister, said: "This is a big step for the council and is all about protecting services and enabling us to continue to deliver on our ambitions for South Somerset in the context of massive cuts in funding from government.

"We recognise we need to bring in skills, expertise and advice from the commercial sector to help us be more commercial and that is what we have started to do.

"We will also ensure it is done in a way that is appropriate for a public body utilising public funding and that whilst being commercial, we keep a focus on our role of providing services to and meeting the needs of South Somerset communities."

Crewkerne man dies in Bank Holiday crash

A MOTORCYCLIST from Crewkerne died in a road traffic collision near Beaminster on Bank Holiday Monday.

The collision happened near Mosterton crossroads on the A3066 at about 2.30pm.

A Dorset Police spokesperson said: "It involved an orange Ford Focus, an orange KTM motorcycle and a pedal cyclist."

"The motorcyclist, a man aged in his 40s from Crewkerne, suffered serious injuries and was sadly pronounced dead at the scene."

"His next of kin have been informed and are being supported by specially trained officers. The coroner has also been notified."

"The rider of the bicycle, a Yeovil man aged in his 60s, was taken to hospital. His injuries are not believed to be serious."

The road was closed while emergency services attended the incident and remained shut for collision scene investigation work to be carried out.

Police Sergeant Fern Graham, of the traffic unit, said: "I am appealing for any witnesses to this collision, or to the manner of driving of any of the vehicles involved immediately prior to the incident, to please contact me."

"I would also like to thank motorists for their patience during the road closures, which were necessary to enable the emergency services to do their work and to allow for a proper investigation of the collision scene."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Dorset Police at www.dorset.police.uk, via email 101@dorset.pnn.police.uk or by calling 101, quoting incident 28:299.

Campaigners running out of options

HEALTH SECRETARY JEREMY HUNT WON'T INTERVENE IN BED CLOSURES BATTLE

SECRETARY of State for Health Jeremy Hunt has no intention to intervene or interfere with the hospital bed closure process in Devon.

Campaigners fighting NEW Devon Clinical Commissioning Group's bed closure programme, which saw recent closures in Seaton and Honiton, demanded that MP Neil Parish arranged for them to meet Mr Hunt in London.

They were angry with the original decision and the fact that Devon County Council's Health and Well-being Scrutiny Committee voted against referring the matter to the Secretary of State for Health.

Mr Parish would not discuss the request for a meeting, instead issuing statements to campaigners, individuals and the media saying he was "deeply saddened" by the bed closures and slamming the CCG.

But Seaton town and district councillor Marcus Hartnell has managed to get a reply, albeit negative, from Mr Hunt's office. Councillor Hartnell asked Mr Hunt to intervene.

Mr Hunt passed the matter to Minister of State for Health Philip Dunne MP, who replied on August 21st, saying: "I am replying as the issues raised fall within my ministerial portfolio."

"I note you request that ministers intervene and investigate the conduct and outcome of the Your Future Care Consultation."

"Contested NHS services can be referred to the Secretary of State, who then takes advice from the Independent Reconfiguration Panel.

"However, you will also be aware that Devon County Council's Health Scrutiny Committee passed a motion in favour of not referring NEW Devon CCG's decision to the Secretary of State."

"NHS England has advised that the committee has recommended that the CCG and the Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust [which manages the hospitals] continue to work with the local communities, monitor and evaluate the changes, and report progress."

"Therefore, please raise any ongoing concerns directly with the CCG and the RD&E as this work progresses."

"I am sorry I cannot be more helpful."

Councillor Hartnell who presented the correspondence as part of his monthly report to the town council, said: "The response from Philip Dunne is entirely as expected, but highlights to me that we should all be closely monitoring the new model of care and highlighting any failings we identify to both the CCG and the RD&E."

"More importantly, work should continue to ensure Seaton Hospital is retained permanently to continue as a hub for a variety of healthcare services within our community."

Vote of no confidence in EDDC leader proposed

EAST Devon district councillors have tabled a motion for a vote of no confidence in leader of the council Paul Diviani following the closure of hospital beds in East Devon.

The motion will be discussed at an Extraordinary General Meeting on September 13th.

The motion reads: "On Tuesday, July 25th 2017, Cllr Diviani chose not to represent the opinion of this council or the people we represent at the Devon County Council Health and Adult Care Scrutiny Committee meeting when he was clearly expected to do so."

"This council no longer has confidence in Cllr Diviani's commitment to represent our collective interests nor lead our East Devon communities as the figurehead for local government. We call for his resignation."

The motion was proposed by Cllr Ben Ingham and seconded by Cllr Val Ranger and supported by Cllrs Cathy Gardner, Matt Coppel, Marianne Rixson, Rob Longhurst, Dawn Manley, Geoff Jung, Peter Faithfull, Susie Bond, Roger Giles, Matt Booth, Peter Burrows, Steve Gazzard, Megan Armstrong and Douglas Hull.

Cllr Diviani has previously said that when he was voting at the committee meeting he was representing all district councils in Devon, not just EDDC.

New THG solo exhibition mixes earth and paint

'RED Earth Under My Nails' is the title of a new solo exhibition at the Thelma Hulbert Gallery in Honiton, featuring the work of artist Frances Hatch.

Frances said: "The exhibition title really came about because when I end a day with earth under my nails, my hands have been at work in the way they like best and I get great pleasure when it is difficult to get it all off!"

"My practice is literally hands-on. Of course, in Devon, there is a good deal of ancient red earth."

A South West artist, based in Bridport, Frances Hatch was the winner of the THG Open 2016.

She was also awarded the Shenzhen International Watercolour Biennial Prize by The Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colours 2016.

She contributed to Kate Wilson's book Drawing and Painting: Materials and Techniques for Contemporary Artists (Thames and Hudson, UK, February 2015) and is a senior tutor at West Dean College.

This new body of work has been produced using and integrating earth and materials in selected locations across

Peter Hodges

Reporter | peter@viewnews.co.uk

Devon.

Frances said: "As I've researched for this show, I've been also getting to know the warm, subtle variety of palettes in locations like Fremington Quay, Dartmoor, Westward Ho! and Abbotsham.

"And I have particularly enjoyed sourcing and working with the intensity of 'Bideford Black' earth.

"While working, I pause to consider the age and the natural processes involved in the formation of the pigments I use."

Angela Blackwell (THG Curator) said: "We loved Frances' work in the THG Open 2016 and the Royal Academy Summer Show.

"It is not often we get the opportunity to feature the work of an artist who paints entirely outside as this is becoming increasingly rare.

"Frances will be thoroughly involved with the exhibition. I am particularly excited that she will be giving a talk about her work, which promises to be really insightful and chance to learn more about her practice."

Becky's charity anniversary run

TO CELEBRATE the 35th anniversary of local charity Hospiscare, Dr Becky Baines, Hospiscare's Medical Director is getting out of her comfort zone and is asking if at least 35 local people will join her in running the Great West Run next month.

Becky has signed up for the event on October 15th, a 13.1 mile run through the heart of Exeter.

It's a brave move because the only other race Becky has previously completed was back in 2015, when she took part in a 10K just to prove to herself she could do it.

Becky said: "TeamHospiscare35 was founded by myself and Hospiscare's Dr Jenny Hayes to celebrate the fact that the charity is 35 years old this year. Hence the name TeamHospiscare35.

"We wanted to get our friends, families, colleagues and supporters involved in the story of the past, present and future of our wonderful charity.

"So the idea is to get a team of at least 35 people round the Great West Run route and raise some much needed cash for the charity.

"Jenny completed the London Marathon earlier this year so was my inspiration for signing up to this, but I have to say I am really daunted about doing a half-marathon.

"My aim is to get round the course within three hours and thirty minutes, before they re-open the roads.

"It's a bit of a bucket list goal for me, so I am urging anyone who has ever thought of doing a half marathon to come and join me.

"My plan is to take it slow and steady and I'll probably do 30 seconds of running then 30 seconds of walking and repeat until I get to the finish line.

"I'd love Hospiscare supporters to get involved. It would be fantastic to have a sea of blue Hospiscare running vests with me at the back of the pack, and of course we will celebrate with cake at the end.

"There are about eight weeks to go before the event and the longest training walk/run I've done so far is 5.8 miles.

"There is plenty of time left to fit some training in if anyone fancies joining me and you'll be raising money for an amazing cause."

To join TeamHospiscare35 call 01392 688020 today or email fundraising@hospiscare.co.uk

To make a donation or follow Becky's training progress, find becaines on Instagram, #TeamHospiscare35.

Charity sets anniversary fundraising target

THE Project aims to celebrate its fourth birthday in style this September – by raising at least £15,000.

This would provide the youth mental health charity with the remaining money needed to continue its services, including peer support groups in Axminster and Chard, for another year.

The Project, which is part of Action East Devon, provides a vital service for young people

Anders Larsson

Reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

with mental and emotional health issues aged 13-24 across East Devon, South Somerset and West Dorset.

Through their peer support groups, they support up to 80 young people at any one time.

Part-funded by Comic Relief, they raise match funding through donations and fundraising from organisations, groups and individuals.

Providing a place in one of its support groups for a young person with mental health issues costs The Project £1,200 per year, so it relies on the generosity of supporters to keep this service free and accessible to all.

They hope that in running a successful crowdfunding campaign, they can secure the money needed to safeguard the immediate future of the service.

Debbie Humberstone, The Project's founder, said: "Since The Project opened four years ago, it has grown and expanded the support it offers so more young people are now able to benefit.

"As it grows, the amount we need to raise each year to keep the service running also increases.

"Grant funding is becoming harder and harder to secure, so in addition to generating our own income through our successful mental health training courses, we are trying out crowdfunding as a way of raising funds.

"So many young people now rely on our support to help them through difficult times, and we work tirelessly to keep our groups running.

"We now have waiting lists for some of our groups as more and more young people turn to us, and demand for places increases.

"Statistics show that young people's mental health issues are on the rise, so it is vital that The Project continues.

"We hope that people will feel inspired by the rewards on offer to donate to our #Support4September campaign."

Young people who attend The Project's support groups experience a variety of mental health problems, including anxiety, exam stress, bereavement, eating disorders, depression and bullying.

They don't need to be diagnosed with a mental illness to be referred.

The groups provide young people with a safe, inclusive environment where they can participate in activities which teach them tools and skills they can use to deal with their difficulties in everyday life.

The Project also runs a monthly support group for parents and carers, works closely with schools to educate teenagers about mental health and delivers mental health training courses and workshops.

The Project hopes to keep providing mental health information, help and support well beyond its fourth birthday – the success of the #Support4September campaign will give it a head start.

By supporting The Project this September, you will ensure they can support young people in future.

You can donate to the #Support4September campaign, gaining one of the amazing rewards on offer in the process, by visiting www.crowdfunder.co.uk/theprojectyp

■ THE Rotary Club of Axminster's 2017 trophy for the best hanging basket in the town centre was won by Cloud Nine.

Florist Sarah Cloud was presented with the trophy by Rotary club vice-president Don Waterhouse on August 25th.

Club spokesperson Barrie Castle said: "The competition was judged in mid-July at the end of the period of hot dry weather and Don commented that these conditions had delayed plant growth significantly.

"Since mid July, plant growth had caught up and all the baskets that were judged had improved significantly.

"The quality of all of those that were judged was excellent but, unfortunately, this year numbers were low.

"It could improve the appeal of the town to visitors and residents alike during the summer season if more of the businesses in the town could add baskets to their premises."

Hospital dog is out of work

A LABRADOR is looking for work in the Axe Valley after being made 'redundant' when in-patient beds closed at Seaton Hospital.

Tuppence is a registered Pets as Therapy (PAT) dog and made weekly visits with owner Brian Vaughton to patients admitted to the hospital.

PAT is a national charity founded in 1983, and a spokesperson said: "Thousands of people of all ages benefit every week from the visits provided by our volunteer PAT Teams who visit residential homes, hospitals, hospices, schools, daycare centres and prisons."

"Volunteers with just a small amount of spare time each week work with their own pets, to bring joy, comfort and companionship to many individuals who appreciate being able to touch and stroke a friendly animal."

In addition, Mr Vaughton is a keen communicator and have had many an interesting discussion with patients on a wide range of subjects, helping to brighten up the day for people admitted to hospital.

Mr Vaughton, who is a PAT assessor, said: "Bringing a dog in makes you a different kind of visitor."

"She acted as an introduction and, if they were minded to talk, I could help and have a chat."

He added: "The smallest dog

I have assessed for PAT work was a poodle - and the largest an Alaskan Malamute; used by Eskimo tribes as sled-dogs."

Tuppence, a former guide dog, was so popular that the Seaton nurses designed a special poster to advise all new in-patients that they might well meet a special visitor to aid their recovery.

But that all came to an end when the beds closed in late August.

Mr Vaughton lives in Whitford and cannot travel to hospitals which still has beds, like Tiverton and Sidmouth.

He and Tuppence are, however, available for visits within Axe Valley.

He explained: "Apart from the odd school and one person, Tuppence and I do not have any other regular calls, but are available if required."

Anybody interested can call him on 01297 552171.

General information is also available online at www.petsastherapy.org for more information.

■ PREPARING for a busy autumn, including the carnival circuit, Karizma Majorettes held a coffee and fundraising morning at the Church Rooms in Axminster. The event took place on Thursday, August 31st and, apart from hot drinks, the punters could also try their luck in a raffle.

Field generator fire in Dalwood

A FIRE crew from Axminster was dispatched when a generator in a field caught fire on Bank Holiday Monday in nearby Dalwood.

The alarm was raised just before 1.50pm, and a spokesperson for the fire and rescue service said: "One appliance from Axminster was mobilised to the incident."

"On arrival crews located the fire, which was involving a small electrical generator in the middle of a field. Crews got to work using a hose reel jet.

"The generator was completely damaged by fire and crews used a thermal imaging camera as a safety precaution."

Len's mammoth cycle ride for Hospiscare

HONITON pensioner Len Styles and two friends have raised more than £1,000 for Hospiscare by cycling from Land's End to John O'Groats.

Len, 80, has kept himself in good shape throughout his life and rather than easing off in his older years, the inspirational Honiton man is continuing to take on challenges.

Len said: "My lovely partner, Christine Taylor, died in December 2015. Christine had three operations and had treatment over two years and then a stay in hospital.

Peter Hodges

Reporter | peter@viewnews.co.uk

"She came home for the last ten days of her life and was tended to by the Hospiscare nurses. Those ten sleepless days were very hard, very demanding and on reflection I was thinking about how I got through this difficult time.

"I think a lot comes down to the exercise. I've always kept myself physically fit, being able to train helped me eventually to avoid becoming overwhelmed by grief. It was like having my own support system.

"Training gives me an external focus, it's a way of distracting myself from the stresses of life. I have always been outward-looking and I do Tai Chi, which helps me to zone in.

"You feel guilty about doing anything for yourself when your partner dies, but you are doing the right thing in taking some time out and setting yourself a challenge.

"I had done some ultra-distance races in my seventies. I completed a 24 hour walking race, the Isle of Man 85-mile walk, a 24 hour run in the Cotswolds, a 23 hour non-stop cycle ride covering 240 miles, then a parathalon last year (triathlon and a tandem 15,000 ft parachute jump) but I was ready to go further. That's how the Land's End to John O'Groats (LEJOG) 1,000 mile bike ride came up.

"In Honiton we have a good group of friends who all enjoy, walking, running, swimming and cycling. We never talk about excellence in these activities, we just want to get together for a laugh, do events and enjoy some tea and cake.

"About 18 months ago, one of the group suggested LEJOG and 13 of us were interested, so that's where it started. But life gets busy, so numbers did dwindle a bit, and by the time June came round there were just three of us.

"So it ended up with myself, Sue, who is 69, and Keith, who turned 70 while we were enroute to John O'Groats. We wondered if we were the oldest trio to do LEJOG with a combined age of 219 years!

"Sue is on the waiting list for a knee replacement and was advised to exercise, but I don't think the doctors had this distance in mind.

"We set off on the 29th June and it took us 17 days in total. The first day we eased into it and covered 25 miles, then after that we averaged 70 miles a day, with 80 miles being the maximum we did in one go.

"The first three days were the toughest. Cornwall and Devon hills are consistently very steep but we didn't really suffer from aches and pains. The hills in Scotland were higher but more forgiving as the gradients were gentler. You're on your own on those long hill climbs, in solitude, it has similarities to losing a partner and you just have to keep going. That's when the mental strength is needed.

"My son Mark (aged 53) drove the support van and he was the good shepherd! He guided us when we got lost, sorted our mechanical breakdowns and made up cups of tea in the driving rain. He really was a support wizard.

"We did a collection for Hospiscare along the way and got £150. Sue and Keith have since raised another £200.

"Thanks to the kind folk of Honiton £601.84 was raised by selling plants on my drive. Grateful thanks goes to my good neighbours for tending those plants whilst I was cycling".

"Sincere thanks to Paul Butterworth of Uncam Engineering Services in Chard who designed and machined a pedal attachment to enable Sue to compensate for an unequal power stroke and to the guys at The Bike Shed in Exeter who were involved with Paul in not only getting Sue 'on the road' but dropping everything to sort out Keith's gear problem on day three.

"Very special thanks to my amazing companions who always had a ready smile, were ready to go each and every day without one days rest".

Len is currently considering what his next challenge will be: "Well, age doesn't come into my mind - numbers? I'm always inspired by people older than myself who are doing amazing things.

"I read recently about a 100 year old who did a tandem parachute jump, veterans in athletics, endeavouring and breaking records.

"Older people who do things like volunteering feel great for doing it and in doing so push the hands of the 'ageing clock' back; being positive and active is so important.

"I'm in training for my next ultra which will be a 24 hour running event in May 2018, the HOPE24 in Plymouth. Oh, and I've signed up for the Hospiscare Breakfast Run in September just for fun."

Young Farmers in Northern Ireland

LAST month, Honiton Young Farmers Club saw 17 members fly to Belfast International Airport from Bristol to meet their exchange club, Holestone YFC, in County Antrim.

The weekend was packed with plenty of activities, starting at Holestone's own club hall where members were welcomed with food and icebreaker games.

Holestone YFC is named after a famous stone called which is situated at the top of a hill near their local town of Ballyclare, which the visitors from Honiton got the opportunity to visit.

Peter Hodges

Reporter | peter@viewnews.co.uk

Members then got the opportunity to meet their host families and have an evening meal with them.

The next day, everyone met at a local golf club where members took part in either crazy golf or played at the driving range.

Later that day a bus took them up to the north coast of Northern Ireland to Coleraine; on the way back members stopped off for an evening meal and then ended up at a local YFC disco.

The disco was held in a large marquee where more than 800 people attended. They played a mixture of chart music and Irish dancing songs (of which some of the members had a go).

The final morning consisted of a visit to an equine and goat yardm, where some members from Honiton took part in 'goat yoga'.

It was then time for one more meal with Holestone before the flight home.

Honiton YFC member Dani Gay said: "The exchange was a great way to make new friends."

The club looks forward to hosting Holestone YFC in Devon at the beginning of October.

Jolly Good Jaunt returns to Deer Park

AT THE end of October, supporters of Hospiscare will once again be taking to the grounds of the Deer Park Hotel in Honiton to participate in the Jolly Good Jaunt.

The Jolly Good Jaunt is a 7.5-mile sponsored walk from the Deer Park Hotel through the East Devon countryside.

Allyson Fitzgerald and her daughter Emily took part in the Jolly Good Jaunt for the first time, last year.

Allyson's husband Mick had been cared for by Hospiscare before he passed away in 2013.

Allyson said: "We both enjoy walking and thought it would be a great way to explore some of our lovely countryside."

"When we arrived at the Deer Park, we were greeted by a Hospiscare volunteer who pointed us to the stalls and to the start of the walk."

"There were lots of people already meeting up with friends and the atmosphere was very friendly."

"We had a thoroughly enjoyable time. We were directed by some lovely, helpful volunteers and it was great to be able to get out into the countryside, where we wouldn't have ventured on our own."

As fun as the walk was, Allyson had serious motives for going: "My main reason for taking part is that I thought it was a really good way to give something back to Hospiscare, who had been so wonderful to my husband Mick and our family."

"The first time Mick met a Hospiscare nurse, who came to see us when he was still feeling pretty well and was very mobile, he commented on how positive the visit had been and how we were encouraged to get on with our lives."

"When Mick became poorly we had a wonderful nurse, Stella, who was so understanding, patient and very calming."

"She and Mick got on really well and it made such a difference when his illness progressed."

"Before Mick was taken ill, I had not realised that Hospiscare was a local charity and not a service that was provided by the NHS. I was also surprised by the facilities and services that Hospiscare could offer."

"Now that my family have received such a lot of help and support from Hospiscare I think it is a wonderful charity for such a worthwhile cause."

"I would just like to say a huge thank you to all those who helped us all through the most difficult of times."

She added: "I will definitely be signing up for the Jolly Good Jaunt this year and I am hoping that some of my work colleagues will join me."

To learn more about the event and to sign up, visit www.jollygoodjaunt.co.uk or call the Fundraising Team on 01392 688020.

Hospiscare is a local charity, providing free, high quality care and support to people with a progressive life-limiting illness, and those close to them in Exeter, Mid and East Devon.

Dalwood Fair pulls in the crowds

THIS year's Dalwood Country Fair was a big success with reports of more than a 1,000 people through the gates.

Co-organiser Shelagh Fearnley said: "It was a lovely day and the sun shone for us."

"We had more than 800 adults though the gates, with accompanying children."

"The best decorated stall on the field was won by the Methodist Chapel."

"They were judged by Major Helen Howarth (who opened the fair) and Axminster town crier Nick Goodwin, assisted by Dalwood Fair Committee chairman Kathy Laing."

"All proceeds go to Dalwood village group organisations and charities."

"Additional donations are made to our 2017 named external charities – Help the Heroes and Sidmouth Life Boats."

The children's fancy dress competition (group) was won by Tom, Toby and Poppy as The Officers.

The individual top three entries were: 1st, Abigail as Florence Nightingale; 2nd, Carmon as a scrub nurse, 3rd Charlie, also a scrub nurse.

The fair was held on August 19th.

The competition was won by Gloria Walsh, and the flower of the month by Joy Mann.

The members responsible for the Axe Vale Show entry were congratulated, who came in a Sheila Hendy was also congratulated for winning first prize in the show, having knitted a gorgeous jumper.

Advertiser's Announcement

FOLLOWING restrictive diets or faddy quick-fixes are the fastest way to fall off the weight loss wagon, according to a Honiton healthy eating expert.

Sharon, who runs Slimming World groups in Honiton alongside her colleague, Sam, says "People often fall into the trap of thinking that cutting down the amount of food you eat or avoiding certain food groups is the best way to lose weight. Long term these kinds of plans just aren't sustainable though, and spark a never ending cycle of weight losses and gains.

"At Slimming World, our Food Optimising plan is based on what we call Free Foods – such as pasta, rice, potatoes, pulses, fruit and vegetables, lean meat, poultry, fish and more – which are filling and lower in calories. Satisfying your appetite on these normal, everyday foods keeps you fuller for longer without jeopardising your weight loss. A lot of my members tell me that they can't believe eating more food actually helps them lose weight – but it's true because by filling up on Free Food slimmers are less likely to eat lots of snacks that are high in fat and sugar and don't keep you satisfied."

Sharon herself lost 5 stone over 15 years ago and has continued to eat herself slim along with starting to incorporate some activity in the form of cycling and the gym. Sharon says "I shied away from exercise whilst starting to lose weight as I wasn't confident enough to do it but suddenly found my love for cycling again and now get out on my bike as often as I can – I've even signed up for a 100K cycle next year with Ride the Night in London raising money for Cancer charities.

Above all thought I love my food and I love the fact that I can still enjoy fish and chips, spaghetti Bolognese and a good old roast with the family, yet cooked in a healthy way.

Sharon's colleague, Sam, also runs the 7.30pm session in Honiton and has herself eaten herself slim with Slimming World.

When discovering she was over 17 stone she was mortified and decided that she would make a change. After joining her local group, Sam abandoned her size 20 wardrobe along with her excuses and became a fabulous size 12.

"That first day took so much courage, I was so afraid of people judging me that I nearly didn't go" she says. "Looking back it was silly to be afraid, I made so many supportive friends that were completing this journey with me. The group was so welcoming and the Slimming World plan seemed too good to be true."

As well as being a mum to three teenage daughters, Sam is also a full-time carer for her husband who has been fighting an ongoing battle with cancer for several years. With a house full of fussy eaters Sam raves over the simplicity of the meal plan and found it incredibly easy to integrate Slimming World's food optimising plan into everyone's daily diets. "In our house we all love food so smaller portions were not an option." Sam further explains that her favourite dish is chicken tikka masala curry and she chooses to experiment in flavours by using the healthier methods she's learnt in her slimming journey.

Sam admits to having constantly yo-yo dieted at home but her cravings for something sweet always won her over, she hated feeling restricted. Puddings are no longer a no go and neither is snacking, she explains it's simply about educating yourself.

With her new budding confidence, Sam's everyday uniform of leggings and baggy shapeless tops have been scrapped and instead of shying away from clothes shopping with her daughters she now finds it one of her favourite pastimes. Two of her daughters even braved a 3am start to join their Mum outside the Next sale because of their excitement towards helping their Mum in choosing a new wardrobe. "It's the silly little things I didn't realise I was missing out on. I couldn't just sit on my bed and cry about how nothing fit or made me feel good anymore."

If you would like to know how to eat yourself slim then please do pop into one of our groups held every week at the Honiton Family Church. We are there every Tuesday at 3.30pm, 5.30pm and 7.30pm and every Wednesday at 9.30am and 7.30pm. There's always a warm welcome in all our groups and everyone knows how it feels to take that first step and will be there to support you through your journey.

Get in touch if you want to know more (Sharon – 07963337178), or just turn up, but for more information you can head to our facebook page – Honiton Slimming World.

EXCLUSIVE May's railway funding U-turn wrecks plan for faster London-Penzance link

trezor.malone@independent.co.uk

Network Rail is facing its largest funding crunch since the aftermath of the 2009 financial crisis, putting its supply chain in jeopardy and raising concerns over safety, according to reports.

The Independent has revealed it has seen a letter written by senior Network Rail official Ben Brooks, in which he makes a grim summary of the organisation's prospects up to 2019, the remainder of its 'control period 5'.

The cuts will affect its 'high output track renewals' as well as potentially put a major strain on companies in the supply chain. Union officials have warned of this to safety, although this has been strenuously denied by Network Rail.

Network Rail's financial issues trace back to a £2.5bn black hole identified in the Hendy review.

Mr Brooks wrote:

'Because of significant overspend in some areas, including some enhancement schemes and the fact that the routes are more expensive to run than predicted, there is simply not enough money left in CP5 to continue as we have been. So the whole of Network Rail has to cut costs.'

He continued: 'The last time the track renewals industry had a cost challenge of this magnitude, 7-8 years ago, the supply chain suffered massively (we lost a principal contractor and many second tier suppliers), this is going to be a tough couple of years for the whole industry.'

'Abandoned and betrayed'

■ I AM writing to express my horror and dismay at what is happening to our hospital in Seaton. We feel abandoned and betrayed.

It's bad enough to lose the beds, but the idea that we might lose the whole building is appalling.

Having read Annabel Shaw's excellent letter in Pulman's View (August 8th), we now know the truth – which is that the truth has been conveniently submerged and the facts distorted.

I don't understand anything about politics, economics, etc – but everyone I speak to here feels the same.

Panic at the idea of losing the the hospital. How dare they! Particularly because of all the money raised by the people of Seaton and the work still being done by the League of Friends.

It's particularly hard for the oldies (of which I am one!). Wonford is miles and miles away and transport sometimes non-existent.

I know so many people who have had a relative who has had to be nursed in Seaton hospital for a while before they've been able to go home.

What about people who just aren't well enough to have 'care in the home'? Do they have room in Wonford for all these people? If they then say that they will have to go into nursing or residential homes, well where are these homes?

I have a friend who is now in a nursing home in Seaton, and she had to wait for ages for a place, first in Wonford, and then in Seaton – which was so much easier for her family and friends.

And another friend (now dead, sadly) whose husband became too ill to be looked after at home any more.

It was an absolute marathon for her when she had to go to Wonford to visit him. And another who had had a major operation, and was looked after in Seaton before she was able to go home.

And what kind of 'care in the home'? An underpaid carer rushing from one house to another with no time built in for travelling and barely time to wash and dress someone, hurl a meal at them and then dash off. Is that 'care'?

Full steam ahead for NHS privatisation

■ THE privatisation of the NHS is going full steam ahead.

Once it has gone – and it will go if we let it (community hospital beds like those in Honiton that closed this week are closing all over the country) – we will be left with UK firms like Virgin and the American firms that Jeremy Hunt has been dealing with, running our hospital wards and services.

In the not too distant future, those who can afford private healthcare will be treated and to hell with those that can't.

To quote Nye Bevan: "The Tories are lower than vermin."

Neil Parish and local Tory councillors such as Paul Diviani must share the blame as should those that voted for them.

Our anger will not go away. We will never forget how they let the people of Honiton down.

Coffee causes traffic tailbacks

■ TRAFFIC tailbacks on the A30 at Monkton have recently become more of an issue and all because of coffee.

With the recent opening of a Starbucks coffeehouse at Monkton, the number of motorists wanting to take a break is resulting in traffic backing up causing delays in both directions.

From the limited planning documents available online, it would appear planning permission was granted for Starbucks because previously approval had been granted for the Little Chef restaurant on the site in January 1975.

The amount of traffic on the road has increased substantially in the intervening years.

Was this even considered when permission was given for Starbucks?

So what can be done to alleviate the problem? It is unlikely that the size of the small car park will be increased, nor a better road layout created (at Starbucks' expense rather than the taxpayers) to cope with demand.

Better still, why not ignore multinational chains and give your custom to a local independent café instead?

Honiton has many to choose from and in Monkton it is possible to get coffee in the farm shop café or the Monkton Court Hotel, thus avoiding the tailbacks.

Thanks for help after fall

■ A FATHER and his young son helped us when my friend slipped over backwards on the

■ DURING a recent visit to the Seaton area I noted in your newspaper two stories, one relating to much-opposed bed closures in local hospitals and the other a £50K Arts Council grant for Honiton Gallery to, amongst other things, "continue access and inclusivity to the arts".

I wonder what the residents think of their local public spending priorities?

wet paving, just outside the side entrance of Otter Nurseries, on the afternoon of Wednesday, August 30th.

They not only saved her from banging her head and picked her up but the young lad insisted on carrying my shopping and they both walked us back to my car. Fortunately my friend suffered no ill effects.

We didn't think to ask their names but I'm sure they will recognise themselves.

Focusing on folk at the Arts Centre

THE latest concert at Ilminster Arts Centre celebrates the West Country's rich tradition of folk music by bringing together three superlative folk acts under one roof on Friday, September 22nd.

United for one night under the umbrella of 'Flying Folk', the performers comprise Sarah and Linna, Danny Ward and Skinner & T'witch. The evening will be compe're'd by local rising star and regular Flying Folk MC, Jemima Farey, who will also perform one or two pieces.

Together they will be presenting a widely varied mix of folk material to provide a thoroughly entertaining evening, enhanced by the stunning acoustic of the Arts Centre.

Skinner & T'witch are an original folk duo from Leeds, who perform music with driving rhythms, strong vocals/harmonies, and a flamenco-inspired guitar style. Their eclectic range of styles and influences includes music hall, musical theatre, and the tradition of Great British satire. Steve Skinner has a background in musical theatre, and is a songwriter whose repertoire embraces comedy and satire. T'witch (Sandra Twitchett) has a classical training, and a passion for British folk and rock music; her remarkable ear for sound production and harmonies contributes to the distinctive Skinner & T'witch sound.

'Fans of good vocal harmony folk should check out Skinner & T'witch.' - Telegraph Folk Music.

Danny Ward is a British singer-songwriter, playing original Folk/Rock, as well as cover songs. He is widely travelled, and currently lives in Bern, Switzerland. As well as singing, he plays the guitar, piano & stompbox, and uses a loop machine.

His songs are inspired by relationships, travel and the natural world, with influences from Rock, Pop and Folk as well as Hip Hop and the Blues. His covers include songs by U2, Jack Johnson, Eddie Vedder, the Rolling Stones, George Ezra, Johnny Cash, and Elvis Presley.

Tickets are £10, available from the box office on 01460 54973 or online at www.themeetinghouse.org.uk

Big support for Buddy tribute at the Axminster Guildhall

BUDDY HOLLY look-alike Spencer Jordan will be playing Axminster Guildhall, for one night only, on Thursday, September 7th, together with his band the Copy-Cat Crickets. The talented musicians have backed some of the biggest names in the rock'n roll industry including George Harrison and the late, great Chuck Berry.

The packed programme is an exciting musical journey through the life of Buddy and the Crickets from 'Blue Days' to 'The Love Way'. With amazing authentic recreations of all the hits and more, the audience will be transported back to the age of the record hop and the soda shop to re-live the magic of that golden age.

Exeter based promoter, Gordon Bess, comments: "It is great to be presenting this popular show at the Guildhall. We have had considerable success at the venue with our New Jersey Boys tribute and Buddy is heading towards a capacity audience. The Guildhall is so well supported for musical events and, with the Council, we are looking to further shows next year. A rchway Bookshop provides an excellent service as box office and Creative Solutions produce first class publicity material. Together with the Pulman's View's extensive editorial coverage, the overall support from the Axminster community is most helpful".

Tickets (£17 unreserved) are available from Archway Bookshop by calling 01297 33595, TIC Bridport by calling 01308 424901, or online via the website wegottickets.com.

Here's to a Sizzling September

WHOAH! Where did the summer go? Well, we're not going to be downhearted, all of our wondrous volunteers and staff are anticipating a great autumn. For anyone suffering the back-to-school blues, we have Captain Underpants (U) on Saturday, September 9th at 5pm and 7.30pm. It's a celebration of friendship, of the boundless creativity of children's minds. It's visually inventive, narratively agile and yes, it has fart gags!

Fresh from playing 'Beautiful Days' we have three brilliant bands gigging at The Beehive very soon, namely The Eskies, supported by The Leylines (Friday, September 8th) and Ferocious Dog with support, Black Water County (Friday, October 13th).

The Dublin based Eskies are returning after supporting Mad Dog McCrea at their annual Beehive Xmas gig last year. The Eskies play their unique brand of folk noir/gyppy jazz/sea shanty and swaggering stage spectacle music that meanders from sea soaked waltz to Italian tarantella, from Brass funeral march-esque lament to weep along Klezmar knees up, from chain gang holler to rag time finger snap. All performed with not a small amount of tongue in cheek, we can't wait for their return!

The Leylines from Weston Super Mare have created a style that combines the acerbic social commentary of Paul Weller with a folk-rock vibe that will send you right back to those long, hazy, festival days. Fiddle-driven rable rousers and songs that stir the soul.

As a complete contrast to the festival fare above we have the immensely talented Neil Maya Jazz Quartet, featuring Honiton's superb young pianist, Matt Carter, playing the Beehive with 'The Brubeck Project' on Friday, 15th September at 8pm. Totnes based musician Neil Maya (alto sax) is collaborating with some of the finest musicians in the South West to authentically reproduce the best known Dave Brubeck recordings such as 'It's a Raggy Waltz', 'Blue Rondo a la Turk', 'Unsquare Dance' and of course 'Take 5'. Nick Carter on drums and Kevin Sanders on double bass complete the quartet who will also play one or two of their own compositions and standards, expect some of the coolest jazz on the planet!

We have great cinema coming with Alone in Berlin (12A) on Saturday, September 16th at 7.30pm. In this affecting drama, Brendan Gleeson and Emma Thompson play a grieving husband and wife who embark on dangerous acts of resistance during WW2. There's the Swedish feel-good, black comedy A Man Called Ove (15) which follows the travails of a grumpy grieving mechanic who is helped by his new neighbour on Friday, September 22nd at 7.30pm. And Edgar Wright's exhilarating, car-chase musical thriller Baby Driver (12A) at 7.30pm on Friday, September 29th is not to be missed!

Our Royal Opera House live screening of "The Magic Flute" is on Wednesday, September 20th at 7.15pm. Julia Jones conducts this spellbinding production of Mozart's popular work. With its famous Queen of the Night aria it delivers a magical adventure through mysticism, enchantment, love and trickery – with some wonderfully humorous moments – through an extraordinary blend of comedy, philosophical seriousness and sheer magic.

On Thursday, September 28th at 8pm we are screening Black Sabbath: The End of the End (12A) which chronicles the final tour from the band who forged the sound of Metal. Watch out for some Ozzy expletives!

We have heard great things about Keith James who faithfully performs the beautifully crafted Songs of Leonard Cohen at 7.30pm on Saturday, September 23rd.

See you soon, from Wendy and the Beehive team.

Beehive CHESS & BACKGAMMON CLUB

Yes we can read

READEASY Honiton has presented another certificate to a Reader who has successfully completed one of their courses. Grant Haysom started the initial course 'Yes We Can Read' in March 2017 and has significantly improved his reading skills by completing the course. He has made such a success of this that he is starting work with his Coach on improving his writing.

Grant said about having had the opportunity to take the course, "I was not given the opportunity to learn to read at school, as my teachers seemed to ignore me and after a time I was left behind. It is just fantastic that I have now had this opportunity at my stage in life and it has made a huge difference to me, to what I am able to do and in particular to my confidence. I can't thank ReadEasy enough for opening this door on to a new world for me and I would definitely encourage anyone who struggles with their reading to give it a go. In particular I would like to thank my coach Lesley, who has been amazing".

Lesley, his coach, said "It has been an honour and a pleasure to teach somebody who has been so enthusiastic to learn and to see his confidence grow. I look forward to working with Grant on improving his handwriting".

Grant was presented with his certificate Friday, 4th August, by the Chairman of ReadEasy Honiton, Colin Sherwood, at Honiton Library, where Grant received his training, with his Coach, Lesley Percival. Colin said, "It is wonderful to see people like Grant take up the challenge of learning to read in adulthood. It is not easy to put yourself forward and admit that you have this limitation to your life, so I admire greatly anyone who can do that. It is so gratifying for everyone involved, especially our Coaches, to see our Readers progress through the process and then make what is effectively a new life for themselves, and I am always proud when I have the honour of presenting certificates like this".

Grant is the fifth Reader that ReadEasy Honiton have seen complete their initial course, some of whom have moved on to learn to write or to advance to the next stage, which is called 'Moving Ahead'. Currently they have a further 8 people in the process of going through the initial course. Colin joins Grant in encouraging anyone over 18 who cannot read, or read well, to contact him on 01404 42130 or by email on c.j.sherwood@btinternet.com, so that they too can make a life-changing decision. All ReadEasy courses are free of charge.

Colin is also keen to hear from anyone who might like to join ReadEasy, either as a Coach or as a Management Committee member. Currently they have vacancies for a Secretary and a Co-ordinator, so if you think you may have the necessary skills then you can contact him through the above contact details for more information. In particular they would like to hear from anyone who has recent experience of teaching literacy and is familiar with current methodologies, and who can therefore advise the Committee on such issues.

Shakespeare's Will comes to Broadhembury

THE play starts immediately after Will's funeral, when Anne has been handed Shakespeare's last will and testament, by one of her least favourite people, his sister Joan. Anne initially ignores the will itself, and instead spends an hour reminiscing about her life with (or, as it turns out, largely without) Will. After an hour she finally reads the will, and in it finds some quite unexpected surprises.

Sally Hyde Lomax gives a splendid and captivating soliloquising performance as Anne Hathaway, having the audience totally enthralled, and at times laughing, in Vern Thiessen's challenging hypothetical play about William Shakespeare's wife.

After the funeral Shakespeare's sister Joan delivered his Last Will and Testament to his grieving widow, Anne. Instead of immediately reading it we are led through her life, via rhetorical conversations and discussions between herself and Bill; her father; her 3 children, Susanna and twins Judith and Hamnet; her servants and her detested sister-in-law.

Sally has toured this play last year and this, mostly in the Midlands, but reaching as far as Cambridge, and now brings it to Devon for the first time with a performance at the brand new Broadhembury Memorial Hall.

Sally Hyde Lomax performs Vern Thiessen's 'Shakespeare's Will' at Broadhembury Memorial Hall, from 7.30pm. Tickets are £10, £8 concessions, available online at <http://bit.ly/2eKEU6R> or by calling 01404 46212.

Bollywood comes to Shute Festival

SHUTE Festival of Literature and Landscape is delighted to announce that Raageshwari Loomba (pictured), a Bollywood singer, actress and yoga practitioner will be at this year's Festival.

Raageshwari's own story is fascinating. At the age of 21 and in the middle of a high pressured singing and acting career in Mumbai, she suffered a facial paralysis. She cured herself with a combination of yoga practice, meditation and time and has never stopped practising. Today she leads workshops on Tibetan yoga, meditation and mindfulness all over the world and is currently writing a book on the subject.

At this year's Festival she will run a workshop on Tibetan yoga and mindfulness on Sunday, September 24th followed by a Bollywood workshop for Shute Primary School on Monday, September 25th as part of the Festival's outreach. Spaces for the yoga workshop are very limited so booking via admin@shutefest.org.uk is essential.

Festival directors Samantha Knights and Paddy Magrane commented: "We are absolutely thrilled to welcome Raageshwari to Shute Festival this year. With all other confirmed speakers it is going to be a very exciting line up this year."

The Festival is also proud to announce a number of new sponsors for individual talks including Deer Park, Kilmington Garden Club adding to those already sponsoring: Perrott Hill School, The Pig and Unbound. Shute Festival's full programme is www.shutefest.org.uk.

Arts Centre bags £4,000 from carrier bag charge fund

ILMINSTER Arts Centre is delighted to announce it has bagged £4000 from a Tesco funding scheme.

Tesco teamed up with Groundwork to launch its Bags of Help funding initiative, which sees grants of up to £5,000, £2,000 and £1,000 - all raised from the 5p bag levy - being awarded to thousands of local community projects every year.

Earlier this summer shoppers at Ilminster's Tesco store were invited to vote for a trio of local projects and it can now be revealed Ilminster Arts Centre has been awarded £4,000 to improve its car park and garden area to make them safer and easier to use by cars and pedestrians.

Work will now begin on bringing the project to life, which Arts Centre treasurer Christine Walker says will bring all sorts of benefits to the Arts Centre. "We welcomed over 40,000 people last year and our car park is a vital - and very well used - facility for our visitors who come to enjoy our exhibitions, concerts, workshops, craftshop and café. Our car park and café garden are beginning to show signs of wear and tear and so we are delighted to be able to upgrade them, with the help of this generous award from Tesco. We would like to thank Tesco for their support of our community project, and all those who voted for us in store at Ilminster's Tesco store. We are looking forward to getting work underway."

Lindsey Crompton, Tesco's Head of Community, said: "Bags of Help has been a fantastic success. We been overwhelmed by the response of our customers and it's been great to give people a say on how the money will be spent in their community. We can't wait to see this project come to life."

Groundwork's national chief executive, Graham Duxbury, said: "It's projects like this that really help to capture the public's imagination by illustrating what can be achieved when communities are given the support and the encouragement they need to create better places where they live."

Easy tiger!

Roars aplenty as Craig Campbell brings latest tour to Lyme Regis

■ Craig Campbell

Get ready to howl the night away on Saturday, September 9th at 8pm as comedian Craig Campbell brings his thrilling new show 'Easy Tiger' to the Marine Theatre. The majestic mountain moose will appear in a tiger striped onesie stepping out of the Fringe jungle and onto the world stage for his third solo tour.

Over the years Campbell has treated us to his larger than life persona with appearances on Michael McIntyre's Comedy Roadshow and Russell Howard's Good News, the latter describing Campbell as "one of the finest comedians in the country, no the world, a well-travelled genius".

In 'Easy Tiger' audiences can expect a raucous evening of post-scratchin' and kickin' litter about the hoose while Campbell tickles chins, keeping purrs and treadles generous throughout! The Independent calls his show "loud" and "beautifully crafted" whilst Time-Out comments "A fantastic yarn weaver, with charming tales of his travels and hugely funny observations".

Craig Campbell roars into the Marine Theatre on Saturday, September 9th at 8pm. All tickets: £16. Tickets can be bought from Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre tel 01297 442138 or online www.marinetheatre.com (10% booking fee applies).

The Original Rude Boy to play intimate Exeter gig

The Neville Staple Band set to perform at The Terrace later this month

NEVILLE STAPLE, also known as The Original Rudeboy, is credited with changing the face of pop music not only once but twice. He is a living legend.

Neville Staple's thirty-five year career in the music business is well documented, from the early days with The Coventry Automatics, The Specials & FunBoy3 in the late 70s and 80s, to The Special Beat and various other collaborations during his solo career from the 90s up to the present day.

Neville's 2-Tone legacy is huge. 2-Tone fused traditional ska music with punk rock attitude, energy and musical elements. The movement helped to transcend and defuse racial tensions in Thatcher-era Britain. The actual imagery of 2 Tone has become almost as famous as the music itself. The famous black and white chequered design has become synonymous with ska.

About his musical legacy, Neville Staple comments: "The way we brought it was mixing Jamaican music with the English style, which was actually punk at the time. Now most people are into ska, they listen to all the people that we talked about that they might not have listened to before... This has happened again and again with the different waves of ska. I am hearing lots more young bands now also putting their own spin on ska – some with dance music and some with a rock beat. It's all good. The music just makes you want to dance. Even when singing about tough times, every-day things or bad things, the beat and the rhythm makes you want to move!"

Neville's autobiography, The Original Rude Boy, was published by Aurum Press in the UK in May 2009. It is an amazing story that tells of Neville's interest in music in the early 60s, his relationship with Pete Waterman (record producer, songwriter, radio and club DJ and television presenter) who he met at a club in Coventry and his rise out of hell into stardom.

The Neville Staple Band play at The Terrace, Exeter on Thursday, September 28th at 8pm. Tickets are £13.50 in advance or £16 on the door. For more details or to book call 01392 793030.

The Simpsons taught me everything I know

Festival favourite Yianni Agisilaou hits the road in September

FOLLOWING critically acclaimed, total sell-out runs at Edinburgh, Melbourne, Sydney and Perth Comedy Festivals, Yianni Agisilaou will be embarking on a 22-plus-date tour this autumn with his hit show The Simpsons Taught Me Everything I Know.

A love letter to the world's greatest TV show, Yianni shares stories, facts, impersonations and more to form a hilarious and crumulent look at a lifetime spent quoting, referencing and learning from the Simpsons, how the show has embiggened his life, and how he almost became the actual real life replacement voice for Mr Burns and Smithers!

Whether you're a Simpsons geek, an everyday fan, or (somehow) a total Simpsons novice, it'll be fun-diddly-un! DOHn't miss it!

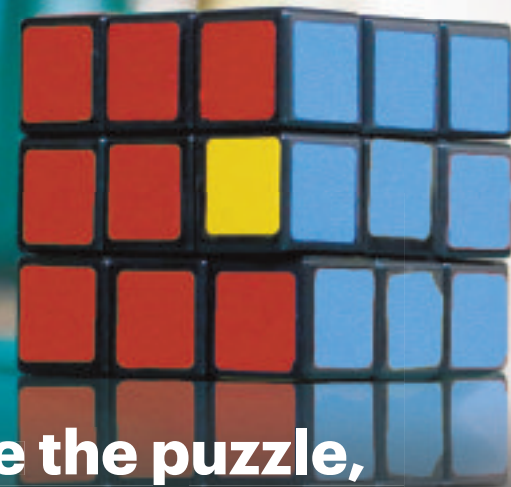

Yianni is in high demand as a headliner worldwide and a favourite at the Edinburgh and Melbourne Comedy Festivals, where he's won (among other things) the Raw Comedy Best Act Award, Amused Moose Laughter Award and Three Weeks Editor's Award, and is the creator of the cult 'Comedy Against Humanity'. He's been seen on Comedy Central's The World Stands Up and was recently the support act on Micky Flanagan's stadium-filling 'Out Out' tour. We therefore, like Krusty the Clown, heartily endorse this product or event.

Yianni Agisilaou comes to The Bike Shed, Exeter, on Sunday, September 24th. Tickets are available now through See tickets, Yianni and Impatient Productions websites.

The key to finding your perfect home

AUTUMN HOME IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS

By Olivia Heath, House Beautiful

WITH the end of the summer holidays, suitcases packed away, and the new term of school, focus traditionally shifts to getting the home winter-ready.

This year is no different as it's already shaping up to be a peak time for home improvement, so it's time to take action on those mental lists and undertake those projects in and around the home.

Get Cosy

With the nights already drawing in, autumn is the perfect month for homeowners to turn their attention to making their property cosier and more comfortable. Make your living room the perfect place for the family to gather with the addition of a log burner – on trend and immensely practical, this will provide an instant update for your interior. You can also make a longer term investment in your family's comfort by replacing old windows with energy efficient double or triple-glazed windows. Choose from uPVC, wooden or aluminium with frames which are available in a range of colours; and whether you want to create a contemporary, modern classic or a traditional-style home, finesse the look with your personal choice of window furniture. You can also make an impression with the glazing. Anglian, for example, offers a broad range of decoorative glass which includes, colours, bevels, etched glass, and its craftsmen can also work closely with you to design exactly what you want.

Even more reasons to drive an Alfa Romeo Giulia this September

AS THE new '67' registration number plates are introduced, the option list on the Alfa Romeo Giulia gets a refresh with a selection of new wheels, infotainment and styling options, while exclusive offers for both fleet and retail customer make ownership even more attractive.

The Alfa Romeo Giulia is now available to order with a new optional 18-inch Dual 5-spoke diamond cut alloy wheel on the Super, Tecnica, Speciale and Veloce versions, and a new optional 19-inch Dual 5-spoke diamond cut alloy wheel is available exclusively on the Veloce. To further enhance the sports styling, the Alfa Romeo Giulia Super petrol is now also available with a dual exhaust for £150.

From October, Apple Carplay and Android Auto will be available as an option across the entire Giulia range, for just £250. Its integration allows users to access the main applications of their smartphones directly on the 8.8-inch infotainment system. Apple CarPlay enables iPhone users to access Apple Maps, Apple Music, messages, phone and more on the Alfa Connect screen, while Android Auto integration also allows drivers to manage the compatible content and features on their device directly from the integrated Alfa Connect system or by using the system's vocal commands.

Keeping eyes firmly on the fleet market, the Giulia Tecnica offers the lowest Whole Life Cost in its class, benefitting from a low P11D, high residual values, low maintenance costs and excellent fuel efficiency. The Tecnica is now even more affordable with P11D prices starting from less than £31,000, and comes packed with features to assist business users; including 17-inch 10-spoke alloy wheels, privacy glass, electric front seats, rear view camera with dynamic grid lines, front and rear parking sensors, climate pack, DAB radio and Alfa Connected 3D Nav 8.8-inch infotainment system. Numerous safety systems including Autonomous Emergency Brake, Lane Departure Warning and Forward Collision Warning also feature as standard. The Alfa Romeo Giulia Tecnica is available with a P11D of just £30,840 for the Tecnica 150hp and £32,040 for the Tecnica 180hp, representing a saving of £1,000 it now offers business customers even better value for money.

Retail customers can benefit from an additional £2,000 support towards an Alfa Romeo Giulia, 4C, Giulietta or Mito if they book a test drive and place an order before 30th September. They could drive away in the award-winning Giulia 2.0 Petrol 200hp for just £309 per month, thanks to the £2,000 Alfa Test Me Contribution, combined with a £750 Alfa Deposit Contribution and a customer deposit of £6,349 (including solid paint at £350).

To find out more on the latest Alfa Romeo offers, visit the website or to locate your nearest Alfa Romeo dealer visit www.alfaromeo.co.uk/find-a-dealer.

New Nissan 'Switch Scheme' wants drivers to swap their older vehicles and turn on to all-electric NISSAN is offering customers up to £2,000 plus trade-in value on their old vehicle to 'switch' into a 100% electric, zero-emission Nissan LEAF – the UK's best-selling electric car – for as little as £100 a month.

The Nissan Switch Scheme, launched today, gives additional support to owners of cars and LCVs with pre-Euro V engines, to help them replace their vehicle with a zero-emission, 100% electric LEAF, or one of Nissan's efficient range of new passenger cars.

From 1st to 30th September, drivers of eligible vehicles registered before the end of 2009 with a pre-Euro V engine can trade-in their car or LCV at participating Nissan dealerships to receive up to £5,000, plus trade-in value for their current car, off a new Nissan model. Or they can receive up to £2,000 plus vehicle trade-in value off an approved-used Nissan LEAF 24kWh.

Thanks to the Switch Scheme, Nissan LEAF ownership has never been more accessible. Payments on a three-year 3.9% APR PCP can be lower than £100 a month for a used LEAF 24kWh with trade-in value and Nissan Switch Scheme contribution. A free Home Charging Unit worth £279 is also provided in the offer.

The Nissan LEAF 24kWh delivers a driving range of up to 124miles (NEDC) with running costs from just 2p a mile. Other benefits to owning an all-electric vehicle include £0 annual VED, lower maintenance costs compared to combustion-engine vehicles, and London Congestion Charge exemption. For somebody living outside the congestion zone but driving into it five days a week, each week of the year, this could mean an annual saving of over £2,500.

SEATON with Brendon Willey Seaton 4 Wellington 1

SEATON went into this game unbeaten but still looking to win their first match and, despite missing several regular players, it was a chance to build on performances.

They started very brightly and their dominance was rewarded on ten minutes with a neat finish from Josh French.

The next ten minutes were ruled by the home side and if not for some fortunate goal-keeping and wastefulness the game should and could have been over.

Sadly Seaton stepped down and let a very useful looking Wellington back into it and on these 30 min mark it was 1-1.

Seaton, now under a bit of pressure from a very talented midfield, dug in and Will House was making some vital late tackles, and from one they broke clear and won a penalty which was despatched coolly by French to give the hosts a 2-1 lead at half-time.

A change in personnel at half-time disputed Seaton for a while and Wellington poured forward relentlessly and deservedly levelled on the hour mark.

Seaton were well up for the battle though and started winning the ball in important parts of the pitch, the midfield by now were winning all the 50/50s and after a swift break Max Richardson finished a good team move.

By now it was a very open game but the visitors had become ragged and Matt Hancock had grasped the middle of the park.

Several chances to kill the game came and went before Wellington came very close from a corner, as fingers were being pointed Seaton broke out and French clinically sealed the win and his hat-trick with two minutes to go.

Assistant manager Oggy said: "Josh French will get the headlines for his three goals but for me it was a team effort from the lads."

"Those who stepped up - from the reserves to the usual first teamers - absolutely everyone put a shift in and should be proud of that."

"Special mention to the ref M. Davis, without doubt one of the best performances I've seen for several years."

MILLWEY RISE with Derek Sturch Millwey Rise 1st XI Lyme Regis 2nd XI

THE teams went in at half-time goalless. Lyme had looked the more threatening side albeit lucky to finish the half with 11 players on the pitch.

One horrendous tackle on a visiting player resulted in a yellow card being shown rather than the red it definitely merited and should have received.

The home side continued pressing hard in the second period, out-muscling Millwey in most departments.

It came as no surprise when they eventually found the net. Another two goals soon followed without any response or threat of one from the visitors.

Overall a disappointing display from Millwey after the euphoria of Saturday's victory. Only Tyler Warren in midfield rose above the general malaise surrounding him.

BEER with Richard Honnor

AFTER heavy Premier Division defeats at the expense of early pacesetters Exmouth Town and Elmore in their opening Devon and Exeter Premier Division games, Beer Albion 1sts notched up two excellent wins last week.

On Tuesday evening the Fishermen hosted Upottery in a Premier Division fixture at the Furzebrake winning 4-0.

Although the Fishermen won comfortably in the end, they had to withstand an early onslaught from the visitors. Veteran keeper Rooke made a string of fine saves to keep the scores level up to half-time and he was well supported by a resolute Beer defence.

The game turned dramatically in the second period after player-boss Richard Walker brought himself on.

Walker immediately had an impact on the game as the Fishermen took charge.

Midfielder John Cooper, who has returned to club after two seasons away, had a fine match and opened the scoring.

Goals from Walker, Jack Harwood and Chris Long ensued as the Fishermen strolled home. Man-the-match was Beer keeper Mark Rooke.

On Saturday the Fishermen were at home to Hatherleigh Town in the first round of the East Devon Senior Cup.

Over the years, these two sides have shared the spoils in some closely fought encounters, but on the day the Fishermen were comfortable 5-2 winners against a young Town side weakened by players absent on cricket duty.

Beer's player-boss Richard Walker notched a hat-trick scoring his side's first three goals on 37, 42 and 52 minutes, but by his own admission Walker could have more than doubled his tally but for some fine saves by Hatherleigh 'keeper Adam Williams.

Walker and Chris Long were a handful for the hard-pressed Town defence all game.

Since playing further forward in the joint-striker role alongside the experienced Walker, Long has become a regular scorer and has developed his all-round game.

Indeed it was Long who put Beer 4-0 ahead on 51 minutes.

The Fishermen then sat back and allowing their plucky opponents to come back at them.

Hatherleigh reduced the arrears on 57 minutes after a rare error by Beer keeper Rooke.

Town scored a second goal on 91 minutes but a minute later Beer's Jack Harwood made the final scoreline 5-2 when his determined solo effort trickled over the line.

Man-of-the-Match was awarded on behalf of sponsors Steamers restaurant to Hatherleigh 'keeper Williams, whilst for Beer their consistent centre-back Joe Adkin was outstanding.

Next Saturday (September 9th) Beer 1sts are at home to Topsham Town in the Devon and Exeter League Premier League. Kick-off is 3pm at the Furzebrake and the match sponsor is Cafe Napoli of Fore Street, Beer.

The winning rinks were T Cox, D Bowden, R Cooke and G Phillips 17-12 and A Evans, A Morgan, D Sanders and D Phillips 17-12.

SEATON with Alan Nicholas

AS WE enter September, we become aware of the end of the summer bowling season and prepare ourselves for the fact that long summer days on the bowling green do not come around again for almost seven months.

On Saturday, August 26th the annual Carnival Drive took place at our club. This is a very sociable event when all competitors forsake their pristine whites and dress in the most colourful garb they can find, as a celebration of the start of Seaton Carnival Week.

The day's event took the form of four-somes over 18 ends with a change of opponents at the halfway stage. The winners to be the team with the best score difference. This year's winners were the team of: Carol Armitage, Martyn Witt (playing in his first competitive match), Peter Grigg and Linda Stone.

Entry fees and a raffle raised £100 for the carnival and a cheque was presented to the Carnival Princess at the end of the day.

On Sunday, August 27th we hosted a friendly at home against Wellington, which Seaton won by four rinks to one, and a total shots score of 76 against 65.

Top rink for Seaton was: Carol Armitage, Peter Greenwood, Graham Thomas and Lin Allison.

On Tuesday 29th, the Ladies Over 50s Triples League Red team took on Belmont, from Exeter, at our Seafeld Gardens' green.

Seaton won the match on total shots scored, with 43 against 30, but the two triples were shared; top triple for Seaton being: Ann Joyner, Lin Allison and Ruby Grigg.

On Wednesday the Mens' Over 60s Triples League teams were all in action. The A team took on Madeira A, at home, winning one triple and losing the other, but winning the match on total shots scored, 35 against 31. Top triple for Seaton being the one of: Terry Hurley-Smith, Roy Carnell and Ken Shean.

The B team faced Topsham C in their last league match of the season, at Topsham, taking both triples and scoring 38 shots against 20. Top triple was: Norman Stone, John Vieth and Richard Whitworth.

Finally, on Wednesday, the C team played Belmont, also taking both triples and scoring 41 shots against 38. Top triple being: Dennis Ridd, Colin Lynch and Reg Pluck.

On Thursday 31st the Ladies Over 50s Triples League Blue team faced Pines Gardens, of Exeter, on our Seafeld Gardens green, when the two triples were shared but Seaton took the match on total shots scored with 28 shots against 23.

Top triple for Seaton being: Lin Vieth, Lillian Hurley-Smith and Pat Whitworth.

On Friday, the first day of September, Seaton entertained touring side, Avon and Somerset Police Bowling Club.

This annual friendly match is played on seven rinks, which of course fills the green with 56 bowlers, is played in great spirits and is always enjoyed by all.

This year however saw a clean sweep for the home side with Seaton winning all seven rinks and totting up a total shots score of 138 against 81. Top rink for Seaton was: Carol Armitage, Ken Taylor, Linda Stone and Phil Crichard.

To complete a busy week two club trophies were played for on Saturday, up to semi-finals.

These were the Harman Trophy, for the Ladies and the George Fossett Trophy for the men. Entry qualifications for both being 4 handicap and above.

The format being four wood singles played for one hour or 21 shots, in each round.

The successful players for each were: ladies – Ruby Grigg and Margaret Nicholas; and for the men – Ken Taylor and Dennis Ridd. The finals of each to be played September 9th and 10th.

HONITON with Julie Grant

LAST Saturday saw sunny weather enabling the rearranged club finals to be played and lunch to be enjoyed by players and spectators alike.

Yvonne Rayner and Trevor Pipe won the Dimond Nex pairs competition defeating Tracy Lambert and Laraine Carless who put up a valiant fight.

Tracy and Laraine played each other in the Marshall handicap final, with Tracy coming out on top. The men's singles was won by captain Gerry Stafrace over Malcolm Seaborne.

In the Heard Two Wood Singles, Yvonne Rayner gained revenge by beating Carole Binmore. Sunday was a washout!

The men's Over 60s A team gained four points in their final league game against Belmont; Gerry Stafrace, Bill Nicholls and Malcolm Seaborne winning 20-10 and overall 34-28. As reported last week, they stay in Division One.

The mixed friendlies resulted in Honiton being very kind to two visiting teams letting them win, 88 shots to 108 against tourists from Oakley and 98 to 168 against Kensey Vale – say no more.

Many club members are now on tour in the Cheltenham and Cotswold area.

HONITON RUNNING CLUB with Judy Davey

HONITON Running Club's Kathy Layzell and Rachel Hennessy took part in the Jurassic Coast 10k on August 26th, which starts and finishes in Budleigh Salterton.

Rachel came 146th and finished in 1hr 22secs with Kathy finishing in 1hr 5mins and 186th place.

They found it very congested for the first mile and then the heat had an effect on them both meaning that they were five minutes slower than last year!

The race was won by David Bruce in 35:32 and there were 290 finishers.

Seven HRC runners completed the beautiful Lustleigh 10k on Bank Holiday Monday, which was held as part of the Lustleigh Village Show in its 130th year.

CHARD 26 TRURO 24

THIS was always going to be an intriguing match against Truro – who narrowly missed out on promotion last season – following Chard's relegation from South West Two. And so it proved, going right down to the penultimate play of the match.

Chard started the match strongly with their forwards dominating the scrums against the much heavier and experienced Truro pack and eventually this was to be the main difference between the two sides.

Chard were first on the score sheet when a clean break by the Chard full back, Ben Stead, was finished in the corner by Harry Miller with Charlie Roberts adding the extras.

Truro responded quickly with an unconverted try. Chard were next on the score board when some quick work at the breakdown from the back row of Biss, Wright and Riley resulted in a penalty which Roberts slotted over from 35 metres out.

Truro fought back with a converted try against the run of play. Unfortunately for Chard, prop Luke Aplin had to leave the field due to what appears to be a recurrence of a serious knee injury; Aplin will be missed if the injury proves to be long term as his scrummaging was a real positive in the match.

CHARDSTOCK with Vaughan Fletcher

THE club is delighted to report that two of our members, Gilly Campbell and Eileen Rolph, have reached the semi-final of the County Unbadged Ladies Pairs competition.

As winners of Devon Section Three they travelled to Combe Martin to play the winners of Section One in the quarter final where they had a convincing 23-14 win. They now go to Topsham on September 9th to play in the County Finals weekend.

As a small club we are very proud of them and wish them every success in the matches to come.

RECENT RESULTS

Exeter & District Over 60s Triples Bowl-

like torture than a race – in 132nd place.

The men's team has a fantastic result winning the team prize beating Torbay Athletic Club which was some achievement.

Kevin was also pleased to restock the wine rack for his wife Wendy with the prizes won.

After the race and a quick wipe down the village show could be enjoyed with lots of activities taking place; one for the calendar next year.

◆ HRC's Kevin Hawker (right) came home third in the Lustleigh 10K on Bank Holiday Monday the Chard outfit who continued to battle away at the Truro line resulting in an off-side infringement which Roberts duly converted to make the score 13-12 in favour of Chard.

Shortly before the break, Truro snuck over in the corner for a converted try making the half time score 13-19.

Chard started the second half just as strongly as they had the first and were rewarded with an unconverted try from Benn Mainwaring.

Chard were awarded a penalty kick which was kicked to touch on the Truro 22m line.

From the resulting line-out a superb catch and drive caught the Truro defence napping and allowed the forwards to drive towards the try line at a rate of knots before a quick shift in the point of attack allowed Mainwaring to dive over the line.

The game then flowed from end to end with both defences holding firm with Matt Tinley and Ryan Hellier in particular putting in some strong tackles for Chard.

In the 65th minute, Truro muscled over in the corner for their bonus point try. However, Chard showed that they will work hard for each other this season; continued pressure during scrums and positivity at the breakdown resulted in several penalties for Chard allowing them to work the ball towards the Truro line.

With Chard's scrum dominance so close to the line it was no surprise when Max Gosden went over from the back of a scrum for an unconverted try in the corner; a penalty try would have been more advantageous to the home side but the referee had already awarded the try.

This made the score 23-24 to Truro. With the ref poised to blow the final whistle, Truro conceded two penalties in quick succession and Charlie Roberts stepped up to slot the winning penalty from 45m out to the delight of the majority of the large crowd.

Chard captain, Ryan Hellier, was delighted after the game and hopes that the victory is only just the beginning of a successful season.

Next week, Chard 1st XV travel to Burnham-on-Sea for what would be considered a local derby in this league.

WIVELISCOMBE 2ND XV 0

CHARD 2nd XV 55

THIS was a superb team display from the second team in what would usually be expected to be a close affair.

Chard scored several tries and finished with a bonus point victory.

Next Saturday, Chard 2nd XV are at home against Castle Cary (kick-off 3pm).

Jubilee competition honours go to Elizabeth Ward

HONITON with John Pawley

WITH the course looking and playing its very best, those ladies tough enough to play 36 holes entered the Jubilee Cup – a Stableford competition. There was an 18-hole version, and a nine hole for the others.

In the 18-hole competition, the Silver Division winner was Elizabeth Wood with her 37 points, followed by Cathy Uttley 32 and Vicky Rogers 30.

Bronze One winner was Gill Johnson with an exceptional 42 points followed by Joan Smith 37, Linda Blundell 34, and Ann Desmoulins 33. Bronze Two winner was Cathy Pawley with 36 points ahead of Cherry Liell 34 and Sheila Palmer 33.

In addition, there was the High Six Trophy – an 18-hole Stableford for those with handicaps of 30 and above. The winner was Cathy Pawley with Cherry Liell second.

The nine-hole competition was won by Catherine Hunt with 15 points ahead of Sue Calver 13.

Honiton's Dartmoor League team sights are now firmly set on top spot, after an emphatic home victory against league leaders Okehampton.

The 5-0 result has taken them from bottom place to third, and with home and away fixtures against second placed Downes Crediton to come, confidence is high for a successful conclusion to the season.

PARKER TROPHY

IT WAS not to be for Honiton's scratch foursomes team who lost in their semi-final tie against Tavistock at Stover.

Overwhelmingly outclassed by the Tavistock team Ben Phillips, James Drew, Haydon McCance, James Spiller, Darren Morgan, Ross Latchem and Dave Carnall can all hold their heads high for their fantastic achievement in getting as far as they did.

DAILY MAIL FOURSOMES

HONITON Ladies Captain Janet Hughes and Sue Ritchie as well as Darren Morgan and Dan Handford are incredibly through to the last 16 pairs in this nationwide event.

They travel to the Marriott St Pierre in October to compete in the finals. A tight match at Honiton saw the ladies beat Launceston GC on the 18th green, whilst the men travelled to Killow Leisure, near Truro, and triumphed on their first extra shot hole.

The game was not without drama; Darren's approach shot to the 18th hit the pin from a hundred yards out, leaving Dan with a foot putt for the birdie and the match – unfortunately he left it short.

The odds on a club providing two pairings for the finals are very high indeed and the whole club wish both pairs the very best of luck in their attempt to lift these prestigious trophies.

CRICKET ST THOMAS with Bert Robinson

THE Seniors match team travelled to Cannington on Thursday with great expectations after their 6-0 win in the home fixture.

The first four games all went to the final green with two wins and two losses. Consequently, the match rested on the final two games which resulted in defeat giving Cannington their revenge, winning by 4-2.

Results: Roger Stone & John Pearce won by 1 hole; George Wallace & John Wandless lost by 1 hole; Frank Martin & Andy Beale won by 1 hole; Roger Davies & John McOmish lost by 1 hole; Nobby Hodder & Mick Aldridge lost by 4 & 3; Keith Potter & Stuart Pope lost by 5 & 3

On Friday, the club hosted the Red Bull Soap Box competition. Sixty-nine members took part in a three man Texas Scramble in conditions which were favourable for good scoring.

Several members of the golf club along with many local businesses were responsible for a successful day which resulted in raising in excess of £4,000 for the charity Diabetes UK.

Frank Martin was successful in winning the sealed bid offering of £512 for an original signed watercolour by local artist Bob Moran.

Special mentions go to Andy Beale, Clive Fisk, Dan Pugh and Liam Clarke for organising the entire project, along with owners Jackie and Steve Hill, the owners for their support of the Soap Box team.

The tournament winners were the team of Ed Paolini, John Bloys & Bill Vance who won the cup with a combined score of 58.7.

AXE CLIFF with Peter Motsom

LAST Friday was a sunny day and also a very successful one for the Axe Cliff Ladies Open with Jo Donmall, the Ladies Captain, welcoming 84 golfers (28 teams of three).

Jo organised the day's event and was ably assisted by Di Rogers, the committee, a former member and also some willing volunteers from the Seniors section.

The format was Stableford with two scores to count. RESULTS: 1st place, from East Devon were, Barbara Middleton, Linda Knapman and Jane Williams who beat a Dainton team into 2nd place on count back; 3rd place went to Helen Kenworthy from Axe Cliff and Marie Tims and Penny Lyne from Sidmouth with 75pts; 4th place were a team from Wells with 74pts on count back from a Tiverton team in 5th place.

The Front Nine was won with 39pts for the Bridport team of Pat Baldwin, Viv Gill and Elizabeth Thompson. The Back Nine was won with 40pts by a team from Dainton.

The Best Drive was Jane Gould from Tiverton. Nearest Pin was won by Penny Lyne of Sidmouth. There was only one 2 and that was achieved by Axe Cliff's Pauline Willis on the 11th hole.

ON TUESDAY the ladies went to Tiverton for the last of their League matches where a good win would have put them into the semi-finals, however Tiverton proved to be too strong and in fact played themselves into the semi-finals.

SATURDAY was Gruesomes Cup day and the draw was made with one lady and one man making up a team who played with half combined joint handicap in a Greensomes format over 15 holes.

The scores reflected those who had a great number of shots with many getting four and even five points on some holes.

The winners of the Gruesomes Cup with 42 points were Anne Jarvis and Rob Grove who edged out Barbara Cummings and Simon Wellington who had 40 points and who were left rueing their lack of score on the last hole.

In third placed were the Lady Captain, Jo Donmall, and club stalwart, Alan Kenworthy with 38pts, but the real winner was the game and the occasion – with even booby prize winners Nigel Garwood and Pauline Willis having a great time.

Take a lovely cliff top course, add some like minded golfers with a generous helping of sunshine and you have the makings of a really enjoyable day of late summer.
